WHO ARE WE?

• An online community platform for the discussion of 3D integration and related semiconductor manufacturing technologies.
• A resource for industry news, technology innovation, market analysis, and opinion.
• A place to learn, share, engage, and collaborate with fellow 3D integration enthusiasts.
• Supported by an advisory board of 3D integration experts from R&D, manufacturing, market research, design, and test.
• Featured blogs include Francoisein3D, 3D InContext, 3D+, 3D ByDesign, and From Different Dimensions.

“3D InCites brings to life the people, the personalities, the ideas, and the minds behind our industry in a uniquely personal way.”

Rajiv Roy, Rudolph Technologies

THE VALUE OF 3D INCITES

As a brand, 3D InCites is recognized throughout the semiconductor industry for its active representation at 3D integration and related technology events around the globe including:

• MEMS Executive Congress, Nov. 4–5, 2015, Napa Valley, CA
• 5th Annual Global Interposer Technology Workshop, Nov. 5–7, 2015, Atlanta, GA
• 3D Architectures for Semiconductor Integration and Packaging, Dec. 15–17, 2015, Redwood City, CA
• European 3D Summit, Jan. 18–20, 2016, Grenoble, France
• IMAPS Device Packaging Conference, March 15–17, 2016, Fountain Hills, AZ
• IEEE Electronic Components Technology Conference, March 31–June 3, 2016, Las Vegas, NV
• SEMICON West, July 12–14 2016, San Francisco, CA

3D INCITES ATTRACTS A GLOBAL AUDIENCE OF 3D INTEGRATION ENTHUSIASTS

Audience over the last 12 months:

• 50,000 Users
• 85,000 Sessions
• 160,000 Page Views

2016 3D INCITES AWARDS

The 3D InCites Awards program recognizes achievements to further the commercialization of 3D integration technologies. Awards are presented to companies whose innovative products have contributed significantly to the advancement of innovative processes that enable interposer integration, 3D ICs, monolithic 3D, 3D memory, and 3D heterogeneous integration. Proceeds from the event go to support science–technology–engineering–mathematics (STEM)-related education programs and scholarships.
ADVERTISE

- Position your company as a 3D integration thought-leader in the semiconductor industry.
- Ensure your company message reaches industry professionals helping to build and maintain industry awareness of your company, services, and products.
- Align your company brand with the credible and esteemed content of 3D InCites.

SPONSORSHIPS

Knowledge Portal
A resource library of contributed technology features, white papers, book reviews, and market research dedicated specifically to 3D integration and heterogeneous integration topics. Limited to 2 sponsors: $10,000/year

Week in Review
- Exclusive sponsorship of weekly eNL blast featuring the week’s posts, company news, events calendar. $6000/year
- Special Edition eNL: Exclusive sponsorship of special edition eNL blasts of dedicated event content. Week in Review banner will display your logo with “made possible by”, as well as the logo of the event being covered. $2000/event
- Sponsored blog posts: Your company blog post will be featured in the 3D InCites Week in Review. Headline, feature image, and 50-word teaser links to the full post on your company blog. $500/issue

Notes: Published rates based on 3 positions per spot. 10% discount for 3D InCites Award Winners. Monthly rates are available.
